Seminar Overview

CX, Heal Thyself - Why Your Most Important Customer Is Your Employee

As managers and leaders, we need to adopt a holistic healer like approach to creating and maintaining an Employee Experience (EX) that continuously provides moments of unexpected delight to inspire employee loyalty and retention.

Join TTEC's Len Patane, VP Europe, Learning & Performance as he explores why your most important customer is your employee.

Learn how to:

- Build EX strategies that leaders can prescribe to holistically heal an unwell CX
- Provide your employees with positive touch points at all stages of the employee life cycle
- Create a work environment that balances technology, culture and the physical surroundings
- Holistically bring together HR functions to build bridges between EX and CX

Who Should Attend?

We are inviting leaders from across UK industry with a stakeholding in employee and customer experience, employee and customer engagement, employee relations, learning and development, human resource management, and other allied roles.
