SUMMER CASUAL

Guests may choose to wear whatever makes them comfortable. A little elegance will be appreciated.

CONVERSATION

Join a group of CX and EX leaders and stakeholders, for a relaxed roundtable discussion on all things Generative AI.

No technology expertise is required; the discussion will focus on business outcomes and strategic potential:

- What is Generative AI and why has it risen to prominence this year?
- Is the hype around ChatGPT and other similar Large Language Models (LLMs) justified?
- How can Generative AI be applied to CX and EX management and improvement?
- What will be the main business benefits or outcomes arising from the application of Generative AI to a process?
- Do we yet understand the potential of this technology?
- Can we imagine future uses for Generative AI in our organisations?
